Cricket matting storage creel

Details

Whilst not essential for the storage of cricket matting, we strongly recommend that storage creels are purchased for each length of cricket matting to facilitate easy removal and to protect the matting whilst in storage.

The creel features hand holds at both ends to enable two people to easily carry a rolled mat and the flat ends that protrude from the matting enable the rolled mat to be stored on its end to save space in the store room.