Cable ties for securing trampoline park pads

Details

Frame padding in Continental's trampoline parks is secured to the steel frame using cable ties.

These cable ties are the correct length to wrap through the frame pad eyelets and roudn the circular steel spring rail tubes on Continental's trampoline park system.

These cable ties are suitably strong and secure to ensure the padding remains safely attached to the frame during normal use.