Details

The AirTrickster from Continental is an inflatable air floor tricking area in a range of sizes. All are 300mm thick to provide capacity to adjust the air pressure from a soft easy bounce to a firm performance bounce to suit your intended usage and the skills of the users.

The AirTrickster is designed specifically for tricking and freerunning but offers a whole host of other skill development (and fun!) opportunities.

Perfect for larger groups to use with free movement, it is ideal for use in open environments such as trampoline parks or inflatable parks as well as parkour facilities and gymnastics halls.
