

Vision VKR with Chin

Details

Designed for training versatility, our VKR with chin station lets dedicated strength training enthusiasts take on a wide range of exercises for their shoulders, arms, back and core muscles. It's been tested to withstand hard use in tough environments, and refined ergonomics keep even the most intense sets comfortable. Best of all, our ultra-stable design is as easy-to-use as it is low-maintenance.

- Angled back support, elbow pads and oversized, round handles for stability and comfort
- Multiple chin-up grips add exercise variety
- Molded polyurethane foam pads and contoured touchpoints for comfort
