

Posture mirror protection pads

Details

Some multi-use activity rooms might have aerobics or dance or general fitness classes for adults, but also use the same space for a toddler play space or a creche. If this is your facility then our padded posture mirrors are the solution for you.

Our posture mirrors are safety glass so small children running into the mirrors isn't a safety issue, but fingerprints all over the mirrors is a management and cleaning issue, and small children may run into the ballet barre and hurt themselves.

For these situations we offer this innovative solution of removable lift-on / lift-off padded panels to protect the barre and bottom section of the mirrors from smaller children (and to protect smaller children from the barre!)

Available in the following colours:

- 28 plain PVC colours - you can order online if all the pads are to be one colour. If you want more than one colour please place your order online choosing one colour and then contact sales@contisports.co.uk to confirm your colour selection
- fully digitally printed - we can print any image or logo on the pads to cover the entire area of the pads. One image can be repeated on each pad or we can print one image in sections to cover the run of pads. Please select the CMYK option and we will contact you with our requirements for the image (we need you to provide a digital image to suit our requirements)

The pads are 50mm thick with 40mm of resilient foam padding on a 9mm plywood backing board.

Each pad is 1.2m high to cover both runs of double height ballet barre. The pads are 1m wide to cover each standard Continental Sports posture mirror but the end two pads are slightly extended to cover the barre which protrudes at both ends of a run of barre. Therefore if you order 2 or more pads we will provide:

- ONE left hand extended pad
- ONE right hand
- Remaining quantity in standard 1m widths

The pads have integral rubber coated hooks to enable them to be hooked onto Continental Sports' double height ballet barre.

PLEASE NOTE: This product requires Continental Sports' DOUBLE HEIGHT ballet barre in order to function. Please DO NOT purchase these pads if you only have single height barre or if your barre is not supplied by Continental Sports
